

Macbeth Character Vocabulary
Sentence Stems

Directions: Complete these sentences by adding words and phrases that vividly explain the meaning of the bold vocabulary words.

1. Some consumers are so gullible and naïve that they
2. He was a loyal friend who
3. Sometimes the news media can be very manipulative; for example,
4. One example in history of a treacherous dictator is _____, who
5. The general hatched an irrational plan to
6. I feel anxious every time I
7. The convicted criminal was paranoid about
8. Many people are skeptical of _____ because
9. The man was so compulsive about his health that he
10. She was a cynical person who didn't believe that
11. It is economically naïve to think that

12. I will always remain loyal to _____ because
13. Because he is an ambitious employee,
14. Throughout the investigation into corruption, the equivocating senator
15. The deceitful athlete was thrown off the team after
16. She was a manipulative friend who
17. Because of his compulsive gambling,
18. The suspect's irrational behavior caused
19. The valiant knight
20. The deceitful student finally felt guilty after
21. I finally realized how treacherous my so-called friend is after
22. In the story of Eden, the perverse serpent succeeds in
23. The anxious family pleaded with the doctors to
24. His callous reaction to the news of their tragic loss

25. She is so skeptical, she finds it hard to believe that
26. Some teachers are treacherous when it comes to
27. My mother has noble ambitions; she wants to
28. One of the weirdest things I've ever seen was in a cemetery where
29. I was anxious to see my family after
30. The man began to feel paranoid when he realized
31. I have a skeptical attitude toward _____ because
32. Alcoholism is a cunning disease because it
33. A noble person would never
34. One of the most valiant characters in all of literature is _____ because
35. Even though he knew it was wrong, he perversely